Welcome and What's Going Well

- CCS had a dual diagnosis capability review this past summer and they've taken steps to move forward and they've posted a new position for an Intake Coordinator.
- Tina attended two meetings; one led by a youth and one that was led by a parent within a school setting.
- Brie was impressed with a tour of Derrick's House.
- Diversion started School Based Diversion program with Beloit schools this week and it went well.
- Evansville School District is working on educating staff about the effects of trauma.
- HSD is starting to review and share the results from the TIC culture and the engagement surveys to determine how they will impact the strategic plan going forward.

Holiday & Family Needs Committee

- Referrals have been sent out to staff to identify families needing assistance
- Donation letters have been sent out

Fostering Futures update

- CORE Workgroup will be trying out one action step at their next meeting to see how the structure is working
- Five goals have been developed for the entire HSD

Needs/Action Planning

- a. Discussed how to get MOA signed
 - Are the people signing the MOA the people actually doing the work?
 - Can we attend larger community meetings to discuss the MOA before outreaching for signatures?
 - i. Possible community meetings to attend: Chief of Police, School Superintendents, CCS contracted providers, YES Conference
 - Action steps:
 - i. Tera will find out when the next Superintendent and Chief of Police meetings are
 - ii. Mike will reach out to Evansville Chief of Police & Superintendent
 - iii. Liane will contact YES Conference
 - iv. John will connect with Nick Osborne regarding United Way meetings
 - v. Jenna will send a copy of the MOA to CCS contracted providers
 - Subgroup (John, Angela, Julie, Jenna, Liane) to put a presentation together to explain what CST/CCOP is and why it matters – key talking points, how to access, who to contact, road map
- b. Tabled

Youth Risk Behavior Survey

- Tabled

Newsletter ideas

- Parent Connection meetings, Derrick's House, family success story
- This will be the last paper newsletter; beginning 2019 will be electronic

Set the Next Agenda
