Section: 600 Long Term Support
Subject: Customer Service
Title: ADRC Resource Database Inclusion/Exclusion Policy

No. XXX

Purpose of Policy

Provide a framework for our Information and Assistance program in the development and maintenance of the resource database in support of the provision of information and assistance services for the general public. The Aging and Disability Resource Center (ADRC) of Rock County will not include resource information on agencies that deny services based on age, race, religion, color, disability, sex, physical condition, developmental disability, sexual orientation, marital status, national origin, or any other protected characteristic.

Statement of Policy

The ADRC of Rock County provides information and assistance services (I&A) designed to support older adults, people with disabilities, their caregivers and families and the general public with access to up-to-date information about services that are available in their area. The resource database is a tool that supports the provision of information and assistance services.

Procedure

Organizations such as churches, social clubs, proprietary and professional organizations that provide services to the general public at large in the areas of health, mental health, recreation, education, home maintenance, housing, advocacy; arts and culture, and not-for-profit organizations providing a community service, or charge fees on a sliding fee scale according to income are welcome additions to our database. Government agencies that provide services in these areas may also be included as well as programs that are provided by, funded by, or licensed by a federal, state or local government agency. However, no attempt will be made to list all governmental agencies or departments. For-profit organizations based upon uniqueness of service, lack of comparable services available through not-for-profit agencies/groups and degree of need for the services and the level of subsidized services available are also considered on an individual basis. Programs that are non-traditional in nature, such as self-help/support groups, may also be included. Information readily available or compiled by another agency or source may not be included in the database.

The ADRC of Rock County reserves the right to edit information to meet format, guidelines, and space requirements. If space does not allow, the ADRC of Rock County may choose not to include a program if it is not closely related to the purposes above or is not located in Rock County. The only exceptions will be agencies/businesses with a corporate address outside of Rock County but who do a substantial business in this County, and agencies/businesses who provide a unique service otherwise not available in Rock County. The ADRC of Rock County will exclude, from the resource database, agencies that have been found to be in violation of municipal, state, or federal laws or regulations and have been excluded from providing service under required licensure or certification. In addition, when the ADRC is made aware of in-home care agencies not licensed or regulated by the State of Wisconsin with an owner, administrator, or direct care employee who has been convicted of any offenses listed in the Wisconsin Administrative Code,

Chapter DHS 12, Caregiver Background Checks, Table 12.115, they will be excluded from the resource database.

The database may be made available to agencies included in the database as well as other human service professionals and agencies, police departments, libraries, and the general public. This information is available to the community at large through the ADRC of Rock County web site.

Inclusion in the database is a privilege, not a right and an organization may be denied inclusion. An excluded organization may request reconsideration of a decision to deny inclusion in a database. The request for reconsideration shall be submitted to the ADRC of Rock County.

Disclaimer: Inclusion does not imply endorsement and omission does not indicate disapproval. The ADRC of Rock County assumes no responsibility nor can it attest to the quality of services of agencies and programs in the Information and Assistance Resource Database.
