Whereas upon the application of six or more freeholders residing in said town of Janesville for the laying out of a highway hereinafter described we the undersigned supervisors of said town did on the 4th day of December A.D. 1855 meet at the house of W. L. Follensbee in said town for the purpose of then and there deciding upon such application. It being the time and place fixed by us for that purpose did proceed to examine personally such highway and having then and there heard such reasons were offered for and against laying out the same did then and there decide upon such application and determine to lay out said highway as herein-after described. Having required by law first made out an notice and fixed therein a time and place at which we would meet and decide upon such application and the applicant for such highway having five days previous to our said meeting caused such notice to be duly given to all the occupants of the land through which said highway passes and such notice having also been posted up in three public places in said town ten days before the time of our said meeting.
